

TANZANIA: 2015 FOR A NEW CHALLENGE OF ACHIEVING EDUCATION FOR ALL!

School should be a happy time, when children can learn, build friendships and develop social relationships. Children start to acquire an understanding of their place in the community and societies rules. They can develop critical thinking, ask questions and discover the wonders and mysteries of the world. When you build a quality education system you start to free society from ignorance and servitude.

ATD Tanzania Newsletter, February 2015 EN

View this publication on Calaméo

Publish at Calaméo or browse the library.

Read more publications at Calaméo