In search of human treasures

Dear Taporì,

There are places around you, in your neighbourhood, in your community, you go to every day and others you might go to only occasionally, or even never.

People live in these places, visit them or work there. In the same way that your families have passed on treasures you have shared with us through stories and sayings, these places and all these people have an impact on you, maybe positive maybe negative.

In this Newsletter, you will guide us through your community.
