Tapori is a worldwide network of children created in 1967 whose motto is:
"We want all children to have the same chances."

The name Tapori was chosen by Joseph Wresinski as a sign of solidarity with the poorest children.

Father Joseph Wresinski founder of the International Movement ATD Fourth World grew up in poverty. While travelling in India, he met very poor children called Taporis who lived in the train stations and who supported each other. He later wrote to other children:

"You are like Taporis when you look out for others.

You can find ways to make a world a better place and get rid of poverty."

Today, thousands of children between 7 and 13 years old across many different countries and continents are connected through the Tapori newsletter.

In this letter you can read some news about the Campaign, with puppets from Germany, Madagascar, France and Mauritius Island.

You can also read about special events in different countries for the 50th anniversary of Tapori and the messages written and read by children. In DRC, the children wrote:

"The hand is a sign that we want to build peace. When we hold each other's hands, it means that we are at peace."

This year, 2017 is also the 30th anniversary of the World Day to Overcome Poverty.

For October 17,

the adults will hold a hand on which is written:

"Stop Poverty!"

You too, for October 17, you can write a message on a hand that you draw and color it.

I am 10 years old.
I am Congolese.

I drew my friend
because I like her very much.

I wish that all children
find some friends
to build friendship and peace everywhere
in the world."

Great Britain

Children from London answered the question in Tapori N°411:

"How do you live with your friends?"

"My friends and I, we like to go to the park and we are having a good time there. I hope that all children can have lots of fun too."

Lily, 10 years old

"Me and my friends,
we play together all the time.
I hope that all the people who are poor and those who are sick anywhere in the world get what they wish for."

Rebecca-Grace, 10

"I play with my friends.
We help each other to do our homework
or when we have problems."

Rachel-Joy, 10

Germany

In a neighborhood of Berlin, Germany, from July 21 to July 23, there was a Festival of Knowledge for children, their parents and facilitators. They were very interested and moved when they listened to the story of Irengé.

In this neighborhood, the families come from many countries: Turkey, Lebanon, Palestine, Morocco and Germany. Every child made a puppet. They helped each other. They showed how to do it to those who didn't understand German well yet. They helped their younger brothers and sisters. They had much fun making their puppets. They hope to continue this Fall when the street libraries start again. They want to build a puppet show on the theme of friendship and peace.

Yassin, Yasmin, Yussef, Mahmoud, Lamis, Hisham, Faisla, Oktay, Mohammed, Ege, Efe, Nezlihan, Mara, Ronja, Don, and some parents and facilitators of the Street library: Leoni, Maria Cruz, Nicolas, Konstantin, Josi, Ani, Roswitha, Hélène, Ursula and François.

Have a wonderful celebration for the 50 years of Tapori!
